

NTU Helps Roll Out Sunset Caucus

Posted by NTU Gov't Affairs - June 19, 2009

NTU staffers pose at Sunset Caucus rally.

On Wednesday June 17, 2009, several NTU staffers helped roll out the Republican Study Committee's brand new "Sunset Caucus" on the grounds of the Capitol. The Sunset Caucus has been established with the novel idea of eliminating wasteful and duplicative spending programs and to return fiscal responsibility to Washington. RSC Chairman (and Taxpayers' Friend Award winner) Tom Price (R-GA), Representative Kevin Brady (R-TX), Representative Jason Chaffetz (R-UT), and other members of the RSC spoke at the event. Nearly 100 people were in attendance, including dozens of activists displaying posters in support of the caucus and its cause.

NTU is a big fan of the RSC, and the Sunset Caucus is just the latest reason. They are one of the single greatest forces for fiscal conservatism in the country. The Sunset Caucus is needed now more than ever in the House, and let us hope it accomplishes its goal sooner rather than later.